COMMENTS ON THE TICKET. What is said by Republicans and Dem-

VIEWS OF INDIANA MEN ON HARRISON'S CHANCES OF CARBYING INDIANA-WHAT PACIFIC COAST MEN SAY OF THE NOMINEE AND THE CHINESE QUESTION. are governed largely by the politics of the Congressman. Republicans generally praise the ticket for its strength and predict its election, while democrats pronounce it weak and say it will be

Representative Bynum, of Indiana, said: "It is the best nomination the republican party could have made under the circumstances." Mr. Bynum adds that "Gion Harrison is a clean man with a lard; was it worms? but the gentieman made adds that "Gen. Harrison is a clean man, with a good record, and in the end his nomination, I think, will prove satisfactory to his party in the state. I think, however," added Mr. Bynum, that emocratic majority in Indiana will be as great in November as if Harrison were not on the On the other hand, Representative Browne, of Indiana, says: "Porter will be nominated for governor, and with Harrison will carry the state. I have no doubt or republican success in the presidential empresidential emp

dential campaign."
Senator Turpic (dem.), of Indiana, says Harrison is no stronger in that state than his party.
Col. Dick Bright says the same. He says: "We have only to get out our vote to beat him, and we Harrison's nomination makes Indiana doubly

"Harrison's nomination makes Indiana doubly sure," said Mr. White, republican, of that state, "for he is undoubtedly the strongest republican in the state. His eminence in the state will make him strong as a national candidate, and with him as President we will have no apologies or explanations to make."

Postmaster Dalton, of the House, another Indiana democratic leader, said: "We will bent Harrison as we did in 1876 for governor. Blue Jeans Williams beat him nearly 7,000, and Harrison has certainly done nothing to commend himself to democrats of Indiana or of the country. He will get no democrats of Indiana or of the country. He will get no democratic support."

The democrats are disposed to make capital out of Gen. Harrison's alleged opposition to legislation to exclude the Chinese, and they refer to a declaration made by Editor De Young, of the San Francisco Chronicle, at Chicago, that Harrison could not carry the Pacific states.

On this subject Senator Muchael of Opency could not carry the Pacific states.

On this subject Senator Mitchell, of Oregon, says: "There will be no objection to Harrison in Oregon on that score. His record on the Chinese question is as acceptable to the people of the Pacific coast as that of any other public man east of the Rocky Mountains. None of the party leaders of either party in the East were as radical on the question as our people."

or either party in the East were as radical on the question as our people."

Senator Dolph says that in Oregon the Chinese question is not of so much importance as in the past. He says there are many good men who opposed anti-Chinese legislation, but have changed their views, and Harrison is one of them. He says the Pacific slope will support the republican ticket.
